METHUEN
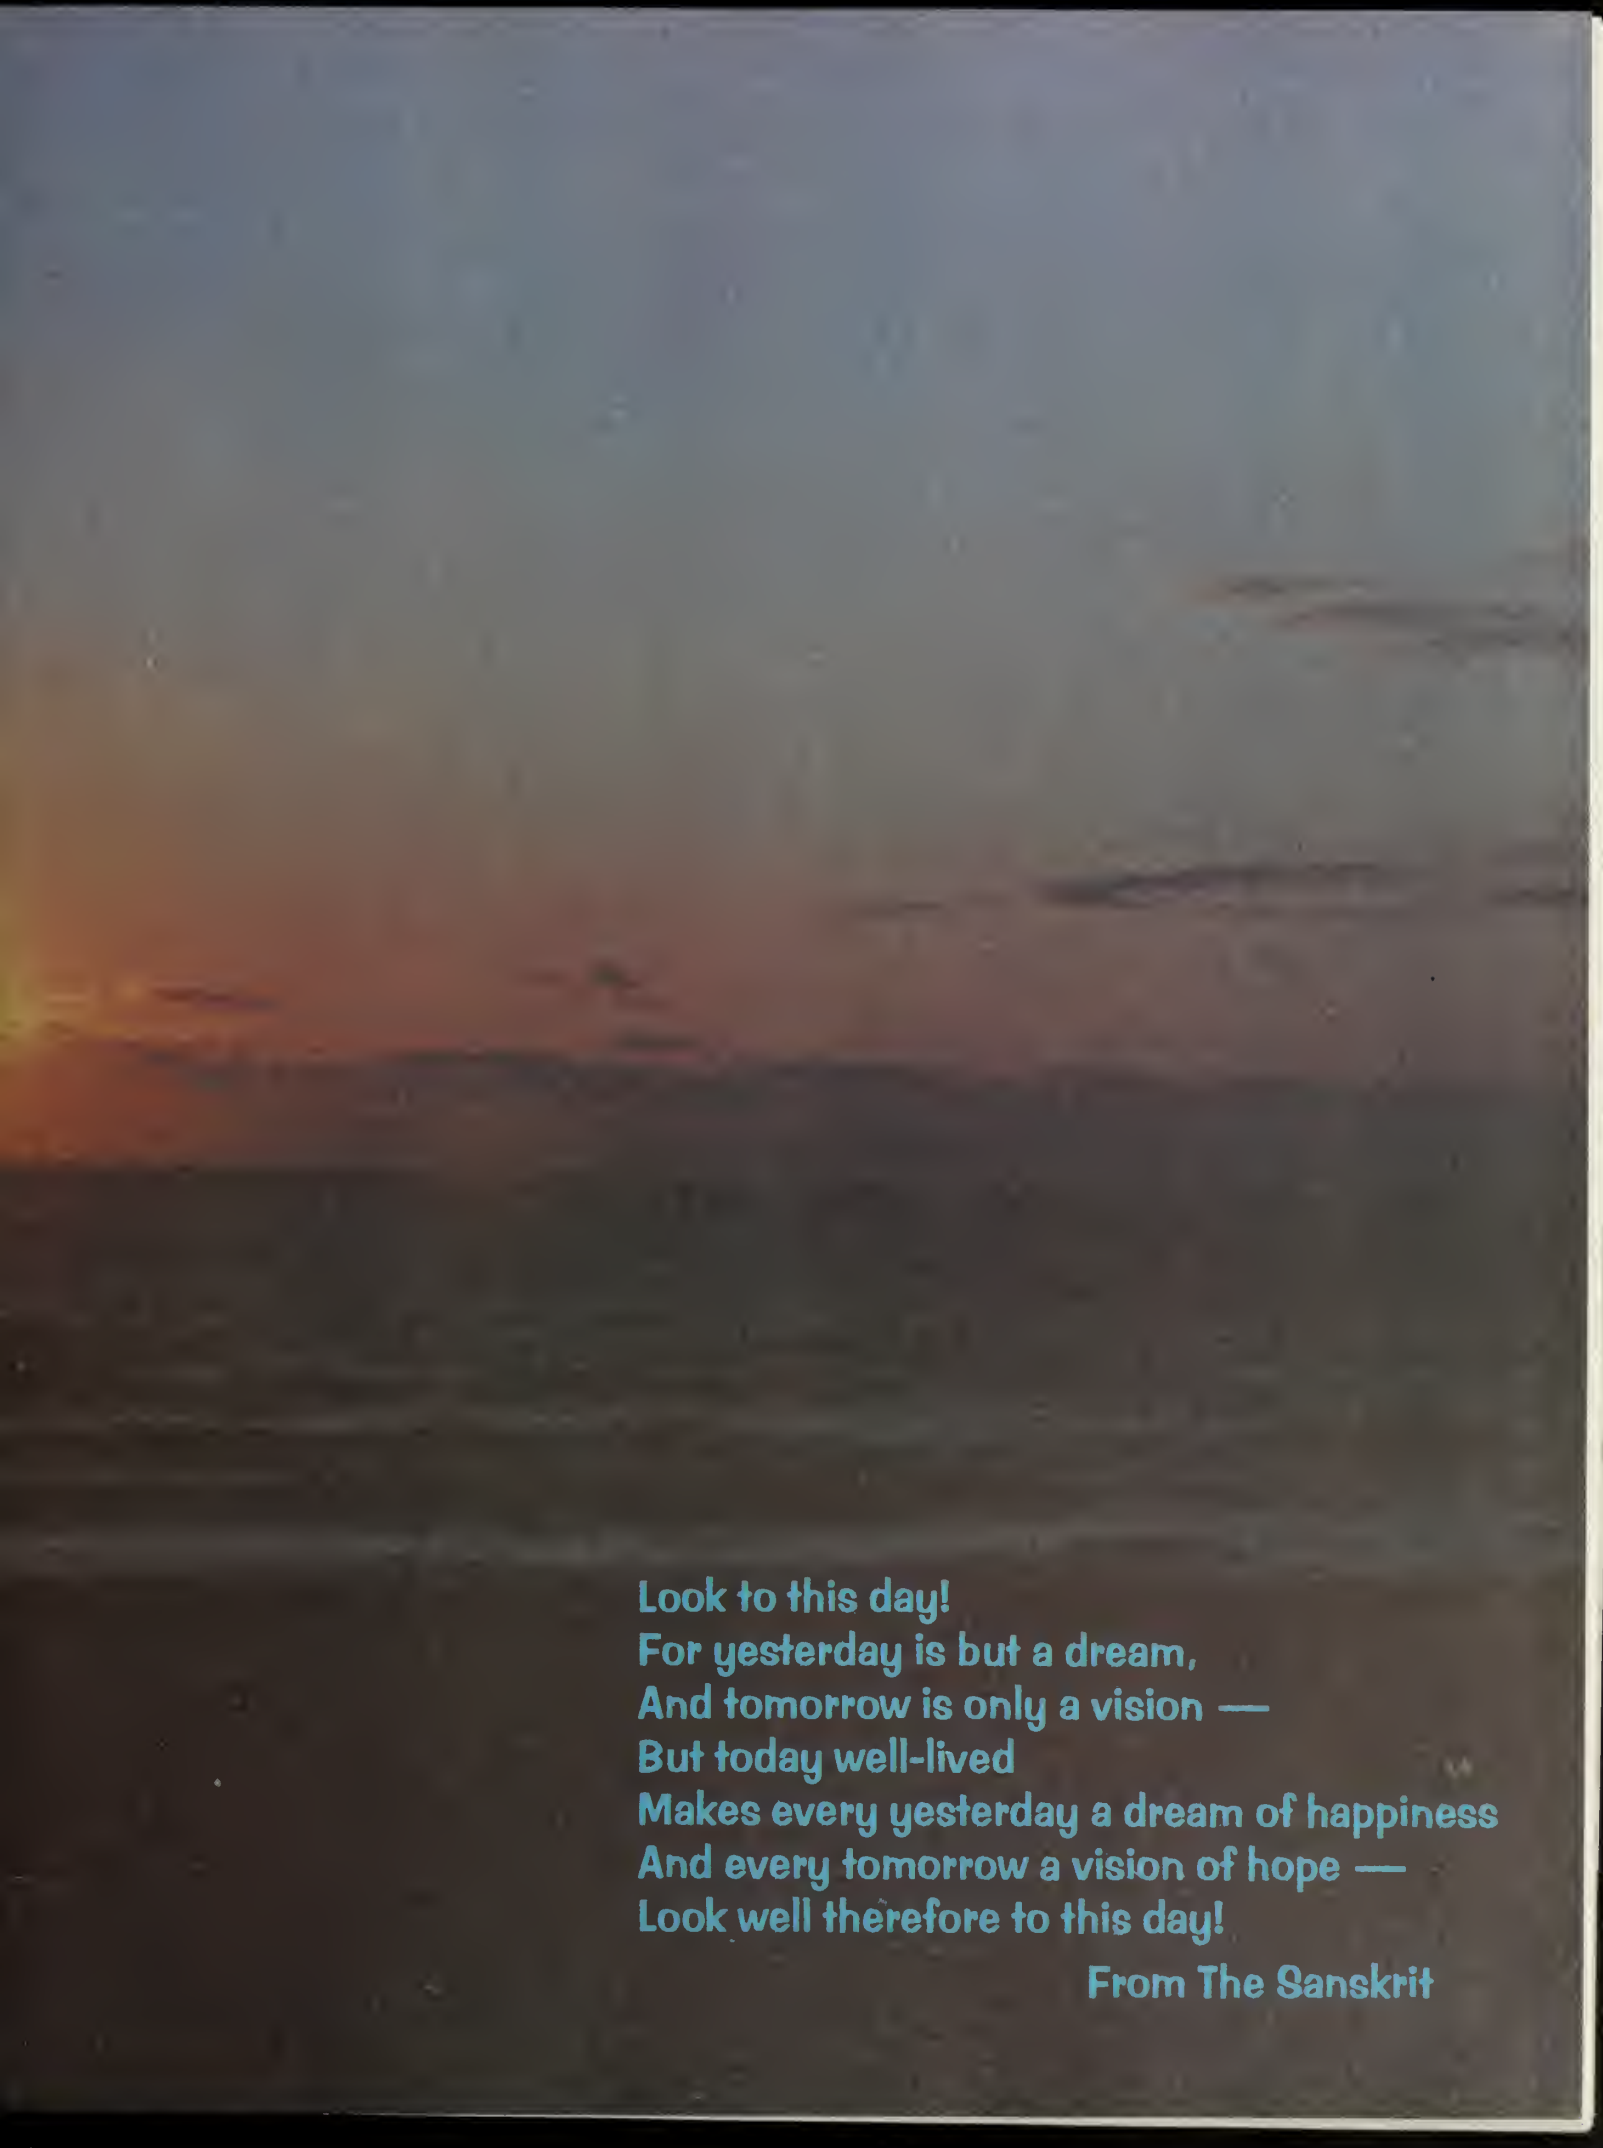
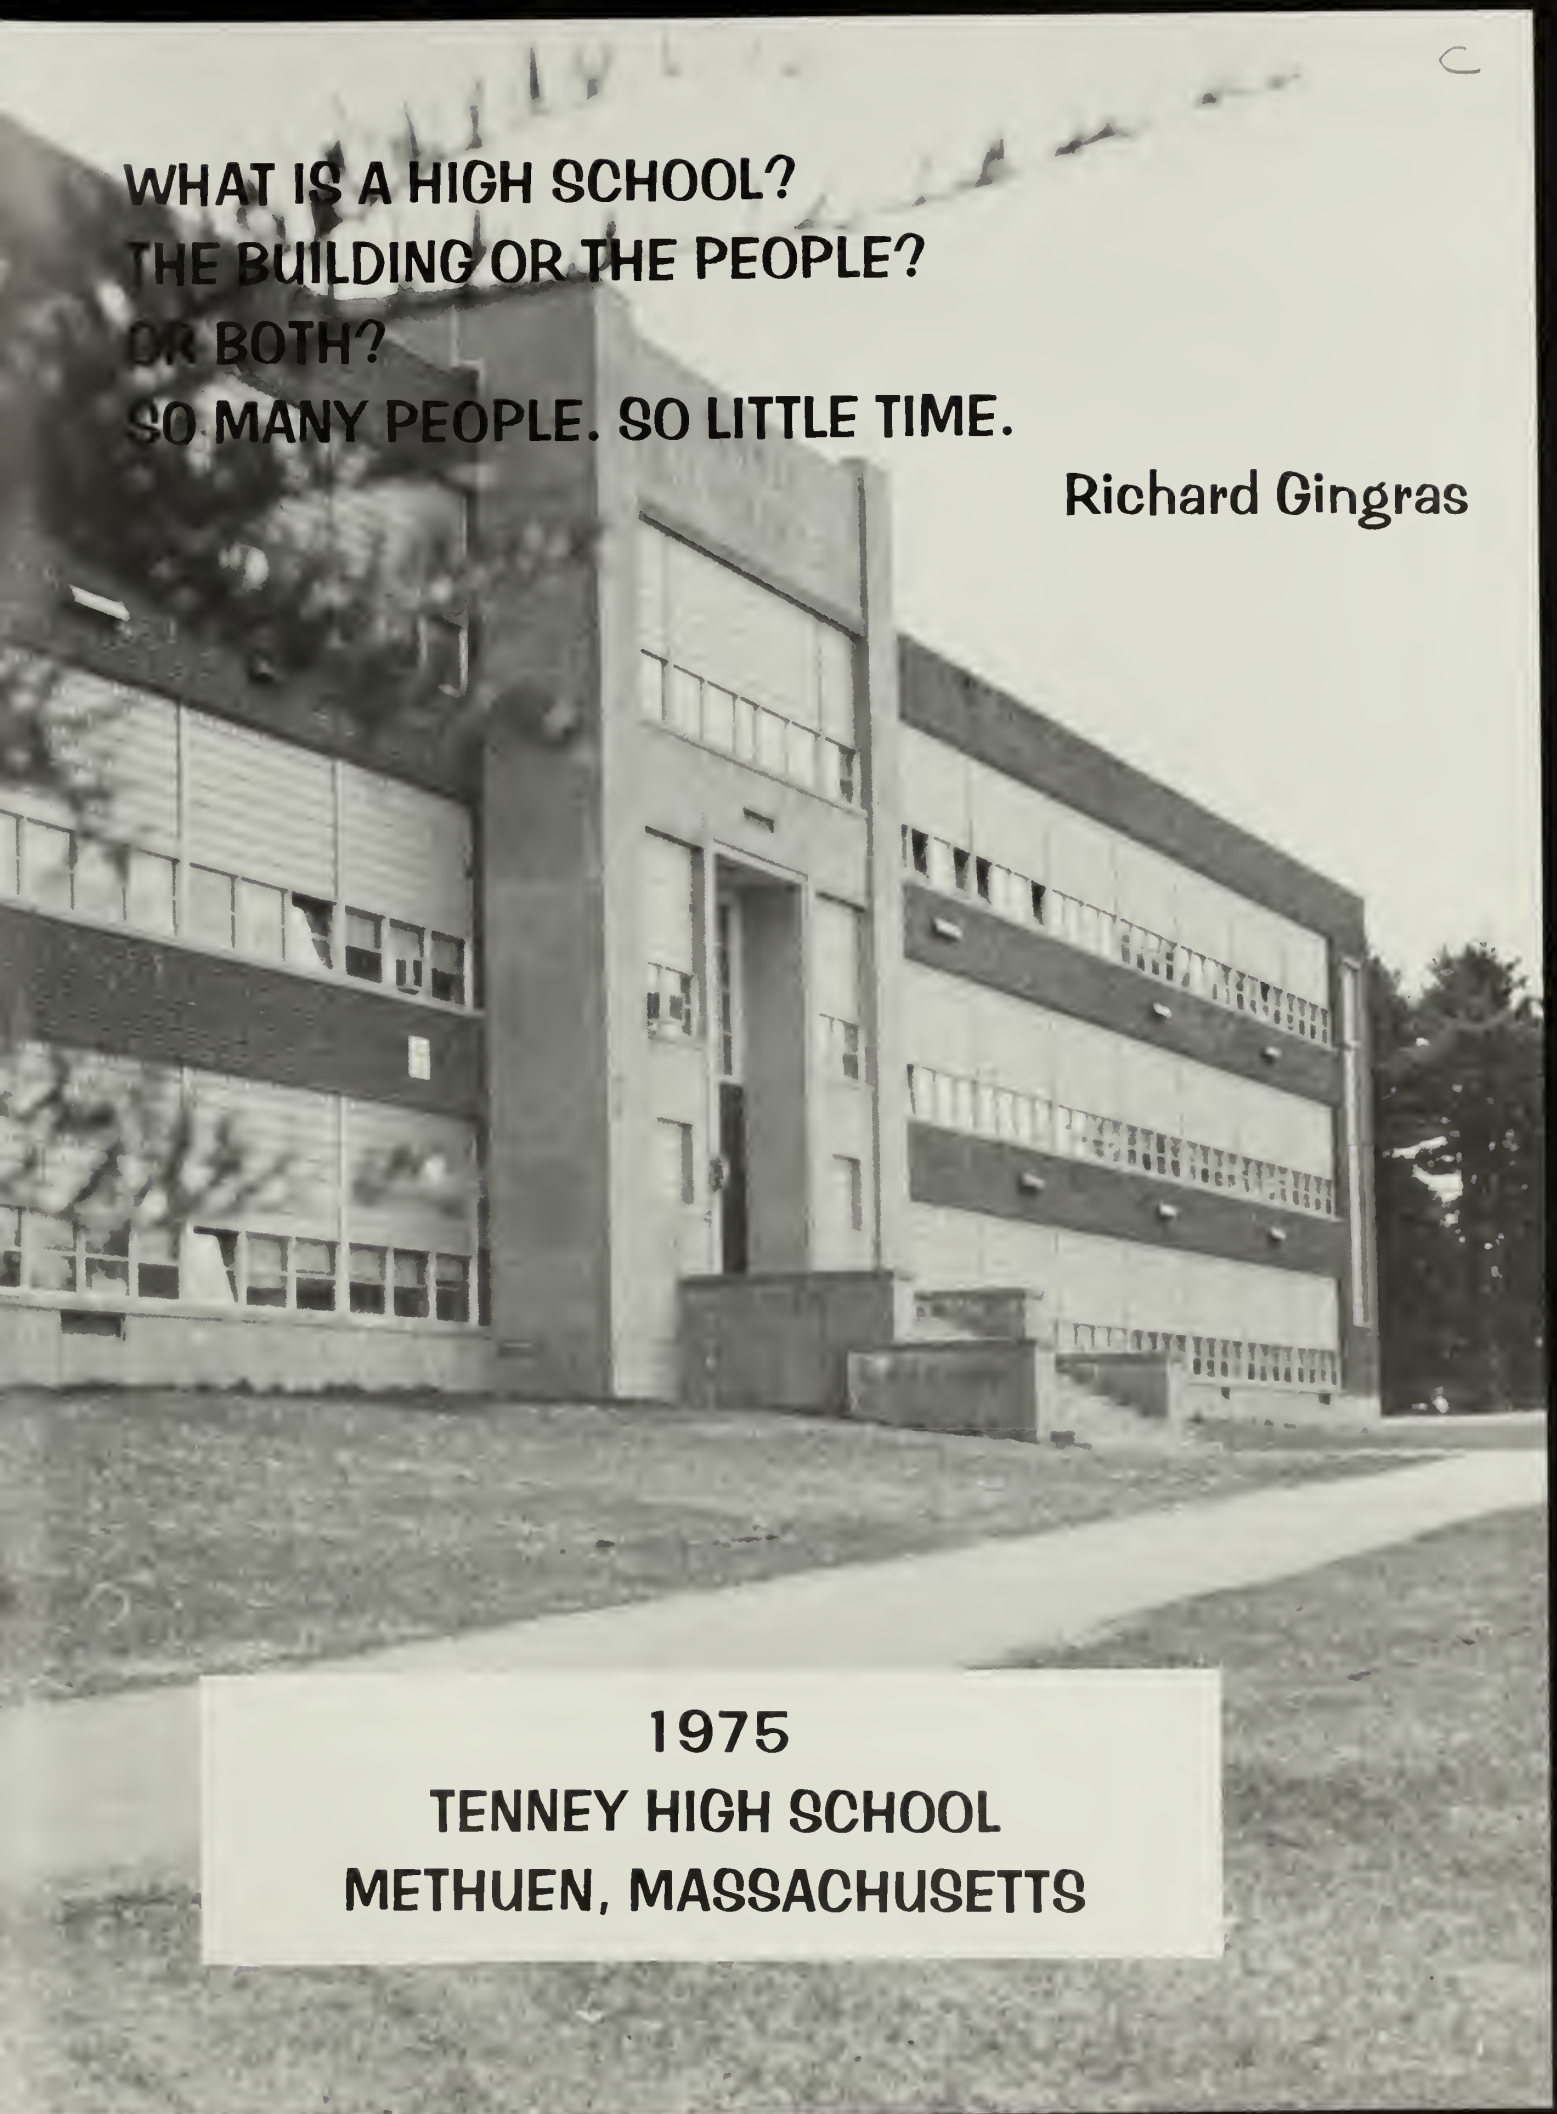
SCHOOL



Look to this day!
For yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision —
But today well-lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope —
Look well therefore to this day!

From The Sanskrit



WHAT IS A HIGH SCHOOL?
THE BUILDING OR THE PEOPLE?
OR BOTH?
SO MANY PEOPLE. SO LITTLE TIME.

In Dedication to

Miss Chadwick

The Class of 1975 extends heartfelt appreciation, gratitude and thanks to Miss Dorothy Chadwick, assistant principal, who retired on January 1, 1975. Miss Chadwick's name has been synonymous with Tenney High School and the Methuen School System for many years. Her devotion, understanding, and dedication to the students and her colleagues have left a void among all of us. Her influence, however, will be felt for many generations, for people of the caliber of Miss Chadwick will be difficult to replace.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Through the high school years, we have been represented by our class officers who have worked together to make our class the best. The choosing of class rings, selling of candy, and dances were some of the jobs these four people took on.

The senior year is the busiest for the class officers who have to begin making arrangements for the Class Play and the Senior Prom. The total co-operation of the class made the play and the prom two of the most unforgettable events for everyone involved.

The Senior Class officers' job will never be completed as they will always be making plans for the Class of '75 reunions, when we will all meet after years of growth and noticeable changes within each of us.

Junior Class Officers

The 1974-1975 Flag Corps consisting of 6 flag bearers and a National Section added color and style to the Ranger Marching Band. The girls performed with the band at all the football games, in parades, and at invitational band shows at Dover N.H. and Somerset MA. The intricate twirling routines were written by the co-captains and performed to the music of "Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is" and other tunes.

THE GIRLS WHO TWIRLED . . .

The Majorettes of Tenney High School added up to a talented unit of skill and energy. Whether they were marching in a parade, performing at a rally, or just practicing a new routine, the girls put forth all their effort.

How can the group ever forget all those hours spent after school, freezing at football games, "left, left" and those long, noisy bus trips? For Lisa Nolin, Gayle Grosse, Paula Sullivan, and Paula Vaiknoras, the four senior members of the squad, "It Won't Be Easy"!

The Junior Boosters are responsible for co-sponsoring three wrestling matches. They also helped to raise money for Boy's Basketball, Student Council and the Senior Class. Another one of their achievements was raising funds for Girl's Sports and buying equipment for Girl's Softball, Track, Basketball, Volleyball, and Field Hockey. The Junior Boosters contributed to the scholarship fund for Seniors and sponsored Sportsmanship trophie for the betterment of the girl's athletic program in Tenney High School.

Memories

I Hope Today Will Be a Lighter
Highway,
For Friends Are Found on Every Road.

Can You Ever Think of Any Better Way for the Lost and Weary Traveler to Go?

Making Friends for the World to See,
Let the People Know You Got What You Need
With a Friend at Hand You Will See the Light,
If Your Friends Are There
Everything's Alright.

It Seems to Me a Crime
That We Should Age,
These Fragile Times
Should Never Slip Us By

A Time You Never Can
Or Shall Erase,
As Friends Together
Watch Their Childhood
Fly

Makin' Friends for the World to See,
Let the People Know
You Got What
You Need

With a Friend at Hand,
You Will See the Light
If Your Friends Are There,
Everything's
All Right.

1975 Class History

by

Joseph Gurka Robert Townsend

Well Joe, this is it. Our high school career has ended after three years at Tenney. Doesn't it seem like we just started our Sophomore year? Remember back in Sept. of '72 when we first entered this place? No! You mean you don't remember any thing that has happened in our three years here? No, tell me how it all began. Well, first the earth was a swirling mass of volcanic lava; then it cooled. Two tiny amoebae formed in a tiny pool, the start of life. No, No, not that far back. How about starting in our Sophomore year of high school? Oh, oh, okay. Well we left the Junior High and had our summer vacation. And just like every year we reached that first week in September when we entered a whole new school. We really got pushed around by the upper classmen, but we had our class officers to lead the way. Yeah, they were — Sue Lupo, Pres., Elaine Foderaro, V.P., Bev Chontoian, Sec., Linda Bohondoney, Treas. Student council was also there to help. There were Mary Jane Mansor, Gayle Matthew, Paula Bell, Mark Concherri, Jeff Lerned, Steve Hynes. Bob, weren't you the treasurer? Didn't Student Council present the free fair concert in the Spring? Yeah, we also had the Powder Puff Game. That year the Sophomores and Juniors beat the seniors, 18-6. Some other sports teams had a good year. The football team was 5-4. Girls' basketball was 8-4. And girls' fieldhockey was 3-3-3. The Honor Society inducted 12 Sophomores. They were Ann Dore, Betty Hertrich, Carol Drouin, Kathy Winn, Sue Bonenfant, Joe Grassello, Debbie DeRosa, Carolyn Sanford, Kim Borderi, Sandra Hering, John Cartelli and Mark Derosiers. Then we went on vacation again and returned on Sept. 7. The junior class officers were elected at the end of our sophomore year and they were Pres. John Kiessling, V.P. Elaine Foreraro, Sec. Bev Chontoian and Treas. Sue Lemome. There was also the student council. They were Jeff Lerned, Steve Hynes, Mark Concheri, Bob Townsend, Paula Bell, Gayle Matthes and Mary Jane Mansor. We had another concert. This time it was First Gear. We had our first night rally for the football team. That was right around the time we had the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Yeah, November to be exact. That was also the month we had our Powder Puff Game. This year the Juniors and Sophomores lost 18-6. Mike Plantamura was captain of the cross country team wasn't he? You're right, but don't forget about the six juniors on the varsity basketball team. Shawn Welch, Jeff Weinhold, Jim O'Laughlin, Jeff Lerned, Wayne Daigle, and Bruce Blood. Remember the Drivers Ed. Classes at night? That was when Moe and Joe supposedly learned how to drive. At the Pops Concert, Vicky Dobrzynski played Slaughter on Tenth Ave. with the band. There was also the care free concert to win the Raspberries. We even had kids in detention writing them up. John Cartelli scored his first 800 on the College Boards. I heard they were forming an 800 club. Is that something like the 400 Lounge? Year, it sounds the same. Jeff Weinhold and Debbie DeRosa received the D.A.R. Awards that year. Dave Coletta got the Legion of Merit Award. Richard Benedict got the Outstanding Marcher Award. And Mary Palazzo got roses at the Honor Society induction. John Cartelli got the Rensselear Award and Becky Yohe got the "Harvard Book Prize." Elected to Boys' State were Mark Derosiers and Mike Plantamura. Becky Yohe was elected to Girls' State. The Year-book members were elected and they were Paula Bell, Assistant Editor, Steve Hynes, Elaine Foderaro, Vito Samperi, Sue Lemoine, Sue Lupo, Gayle Grosse, Bev Chontonian, Becky Yohe, Kathy Winn, Vicky Dobrzynski and you were the editor Bob. We were out of school for about a week and then the Soccer Marathon took place. Twenty-two men played soccer for 32 hours to gain the World Marathon Title. Then to find out we didn't even break the record, hurt. But we're going to try again in June. We had another summer vacation, but this time when we came back to Tenney we were the mighty seniors. While some teams were having a disappointing year, the soccer team surprised everyone with a successful year at 10-2-2 record. It was the first year the soccer team made the Tech. In the first game they were beaten in double overtime 2-0. This year's class officers were Pres., Sue Lupo; V.P., Nancy Benson; Sec., Bev. Chontonian; Sue Lemione, Treas. The student council members were Bob Townsend, Pres.; Gayle Matthes, V.P.; Steve Hynes, Mark Concheri, Steve Floris, Paula Bell and Mary Jane Mansor. The Cheerleaders were co-captains Paula Bova and Gayle Foderaro, Kim Borderi, Michelle Stroffalino, Donna Reitano and Sue Lupo. They got a lot of cheering support from the upper right corner of the bleachers during the Thanksgiving Day Football Game. Chosen football queen this year was Sue Lemoine. Her attendants were Elaine Foderaro and Mary Jane Mansor. Tony Catalano and Sue Bonenfant were elected King and Queen. At the basketball games the Kazoo band got the school spirit going. Bomb scares also got the school spirit going. This year we must have had at least ten. Yeah and one of those was during a blizzard. What about the time John Cartelli had to define negligee in his English Class? We had two concerts and one movie sponsored by the Student Council. The navy band came in for one performance and we had Free-Fair concert with Rosco on guitar. And the movie was 1776 although we only got to see 3 of the 4 reels. The Donkey Basketball game created a lot of laughs as both teachers and students were knocked off their asses. We also had our own dating service as Mrs. Hovanasian and Mr. Francis took the responsibility of matchmaking. Speaking of Ma, what about the senior class play MASH? Wasn't it the greatest! I think it was the best Tenney ever put on. Jerry Peters, Brad Craven, Nancy Parsons and Ann Dore won the drama awards. Besides John Cartelli's two 800, on college boards this year, other people won awards. Carol Drouin won the leadership award and Shirley Rose won the Service Award from the Honor Society. Gina Soucy won the John Phillip Sousa Award and Vicky Dobrzynski and Jerry Peters won the School Choral Award. The Reader's Digest Award given annually to the Valedictorian, went to John Cartelli. Dawn Spencer was Distributive Education girl of the year and John Sciuto was Distributive Education boy of the year. Athlete of the Year Award went to Carolyn Sanford. Liz Leonard won the Joyce Helen Mintzner Memorial Trophy. Kathy Winn received this year's D.A.R. Award. Now, I guess all that's left are Prom and Graduation. What? Don't you remember? No, start at the beginning. Well, first the earth was a swirling mass of volcanic lava; then, it cooled two tiny amoebae formed in a tiny pool, the start of life. No. No.

Class Will of 1975

by

Beverley Chontoian Stephen Hynes

We, the Senior class of '75, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to friends, teachers, and underclassmen. We, the seniors of the Soccer team, leave Mr. Sorter memories of a great season and of our first appearance in the Tech Tourney. We, Becky, Susan, and Kathy, leave Mr. Salemi a pair of bronze lips. We, Mr. Clayman's C level math class, leave him a laugh sound track for all those jokes no one ever understood. I, Barbara F., leave Tricia Nelson a banana split 32 feet long. We, Steve Hilbert and Kathy Ford, leave Mr. Nicholson a book with 2001 reasons why we shouldn't go to detention. We, Mr. Jennings' D and F levels, leave him a copy of The Collector. We, the students of Mr. Francis' E level English Class, leave him a one year's paid tuition to Comedian School where hopefully he'll learn how to tell a joke that's funny. I, Kathy Coco, leave to Mr. Cullve all my make-up tests. I, Steve Collins, leave to Mr. David Hennessey 50% of all my books on filmmaking. I, Mary Palazzo, leave to Mrs. Hovanasian a question, "What am I going to do now?" We, the students of Mrs. Hodge's E level, leave her one student exactly like Dan Dunn to make her next year as happy and untroubled as it was this year. I, Debbie Shaw, leave Mr. Stasio my remembrance of all our good times. I, Jim O'Loughlin, leave Mr. David Isadore a set of custom dingleballs for his car, along with a pair of dice and a blinky-eyed cat for the back window. I, Jerry Peters, leave to Mrs. Hovanasian all the memories, sweat, and hard work it took to put on the best senior class play this school has ever seen. Also one slightly used rubber chicken. I, Dave Coletta, leave Mr. Herlihy one slightly used muzzle and a Trac II razor. To Mr. Constantineau, I, Paula Bova, leave a book of new jokes to take the place of his old ones. We, Karen and Cathy, leave Dave Dizazzo one army jacket, one pack of Newports, and all our notes. I, Alphonso, leave to Mr. Dolloff a book on public speaking. I, Nancy, leave to my sister Linda my dirty gym suit. I, Michaele Mikulus, leave to Mr. Herlihy a year's supply of Tic Tacs. I, Mary Palazzo, leave to Jody St. Germain all my foolproof excuses for passing in work late and skipping gym. We, the journalism class, leave to Mrs. Hershfield, Mr. Jennings and next year's class all the copies of the Ranger that didn't sell, an empty treasury, and a Ranger staff that's easier to get along with. I, Becky Yohe, leave Mr. Ziminski a case of No-Doz. I, Barbara F., leave the junior, sophomores, freshmen, and eighth grades Mr. Dolloff. I, Brad Craven, leave Mr. Whiting a nude picture of Golda Meir and Harpo Marx playing monopoly. We, Debbie and Colleen, leave Mr. Hennessey a P-38. I, Paula Vaiknoras, leave Debbie and Diane my two batons and a fun year as co-captains. We, Brenda Lavery and Julie Stansits, leave Mrs. Kern our baby books. To next year's Flag Corps and Band, we, Brenda and Susan, leave a year's supply of aspirin and ear muffs for the marching band season. P.S. to Jim O'Loughlin, did you ever find out who sent that Valentine? I, Gary Watts, would like to leave Mrs. McGrath one king size waterbed in place of living on a house boat, and to Mr. Pilat one tape recording of his voice saying, "Take a reading", "Sweep the floor", "Dust the shelves", "Empty the trash", and "Get your damn feet of my desk." We, Marina Korizis and Mark Langlais, leave Miss Kevgas two carbon copies of ourselves to do her errands G and H levels next year. I, Leila Martone, leave Carol MacLeod all my number 12 uniforms to be worn gracefully. I leave to Fran, Debbie, Sue, Fudge, Joelle, and Hutheda my parking space for next year, love Mary Jane. We, Debbie, Barbara, Anne and Colleen, leave Mr. Ziminski one polka-dot tie. We, Brenda Lavery and Julie Stansits, leave D level open study to Paul Murphy in case he wants to skip woodworking. We, the G level class of Mr. Whiting, leave to him another G level class like the G level class of '75 with the exception of John Mackor. I, Brad Craven, leave my sister Dru to Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Nicholson to my sister Dru, you deserve each other. I, Sal Polizzotti, leave to Mr. Herlihy one extra desk in his homeroom, so that one of the next year's seniors will be more fortunate that I was in that he will be able to sit down during homeroom period. We, Roberta Kilcoyne and Mr. Francis' E level English Class, leave him a book of quotable notables cutting down men. P.S. They won't be lies. I, Karen Ehramjian, leave to Mr. Isadore one used violin. Maybe he'll change his impressions of string players. I, Ken, Schelling, leave my old beaten up tacks to next year's Hockey captain, Mike "Hibner" Weinhold. We, the girls of H Level, Cindi, Susan, Beth, Nancy, Lisa, and Mary, leave our table in the corner of the cafe to any junior girls who can uphold the tradition of rowdiness, hysteria, and laughter. I, Barbara F., leave Mr. Hennessey one glass of chocolate milk. We, Mr. Donald Smith's B level class, leave to him a giant picture of himself so he won't have to look in the mirror. I, Pat McMenamon, leave to Gina Neve one pair of marine sergeant stripes and a rifle to keep Fudge, Debbie, Susan, Fran and Joelle in line. We, Paula, Mary, and Debbie, leave to Mr. Francis a complete set of Graucho Marx records and one large bottle of updock. I, Michael Kennedy, leave to Mr. Hallbauer one straw dispenser from the McDonald's of his choice. I, Steve Copley, leave to Mr. Hallbauer one napkin dispenser to make a matched set with the straw dispenser. We, Mr. Russell's E level Physics class, leave him a life size poster of Kim Bordieri and John Cartelli. We, the Ranger staff, leave Mr. Pilat a lifetime Subscription to the school newspaper because we know how much he enjoys it. I, Debbie Cubelli, leave Mr. Gurry my crash helmet. I, Jerry Peters, leave to George Kalil, the job of taking care of Mrs. Hovanasian. George, make sure she doesn't get into too much trouble and if she gets violet, lock her in the room above the back stage area. We, Karen and Cathy, leave to Putty Florenz one doberman pinscher. To Pink Witzgall we leave our Jim Floyd album, a pair of workboots, and a new denim jacket. I, John Baggetta, will leave for next year's cross country team my run down flats, and will leave my ripped shorts to Mr. Fuller. I, Bob Gross, would like to leave Mr. Rosmarino a full confession. I, Radar, being of sound ears and body do hereby leave my Teddy Bear and Red Jammies to Mr. Nicholson for a little bit of security. I, Richard Benedict, leave to the band one book of nicknames so they can name next year's drum major and to Mr. Isadore I leave six worn out reeds, a book of new jokes, and a recording of "Babaloo." To Mrs. Kern, I, Sharon Blanchard, leave a new iron and good luck with the future senior class. To next year's seniors from the class of '75 a map of all the good party spots at the new school. To Mr. Rosmarino from the senior class of '75 a book of matches and some pipe cleaners. To Mr. Whiting from the seniors — another fifth of ANY Comfort, southern or northern. I, Lila Annaloro, leave my moonshining ability to any Junior who can withstand the embarrassment. I, Sue, leave Gina N. her place on the bench and to Gino O. the locker to herself. We, Mrs. Derby's D level Spanish class of last year, leave her the final exam that she somehow misplaced the day before the test. I, Marina Korizis, leave Jane Landry my position on the field hockey team and wish that she gets Most Valuable Bench Warmer. I, Karen Ehramjian, leave to Mr. Herlihy and Mr. Francis one tray of pahklava. I, Bev, leave to my sister Alice a pass to leave the school every lunch time. I, Mary Palazzo, leave to Steve Hynes two memorable words, "Clam UP!"

Attested and signed this 30th day of May 1975

Class Prophecy — 1975

Susan Bonenfant Kurt Carlson

Hi Sue, guess we're the first to arrive. How've you been Kurt? I'm so excited. It's been ten long years since our class of '75 has met together. I've been really curious about what everyone has made of their lives. Have you heard from anyone? Remember Al Kamal? Alias Al Bear? He's a professional gorilla. And Brian Raymond is a permanent resident at Walpole State Prison. A couple of our class mates are wealthy landowners. Bruce Blood now owns a piece of Stephen Barker School yard. He makes his millions by charging the kids $10.00 to play there, and Georgia Cattone is a wealthy shareholder in D.K.'s. Mark Concheri is still searching for the right woman. Tom Buco is still concentrating on growing. It takes a lot out of a person, you know. Brian Buckley is a famous rock star. John Cartelli is that mad scientist who runs that weird laboratory up on Riverdale Ave. Cheryl and Janice DiMauro head the Distributive Education Department at Methuen High School. I heard they have Mr. Pilat working the register at the school store. And did you know that John Bonanno still says he beat up those seven guys all by himself? He always was a show off. Debbie Cubelli is still undecided and Manny DeDeus is still searching for something worth while to do with her life! They're probably the only two smart ones from the class of '75. Nancy Bodenrader is now the head secretary at Arlington Trust Bank on Salem Rd. Her staff consists of Angela Cyr, Lyn Crete, Tanny Garrity and Denise Ouellette. Sean Sullivan and Maureen LaCroix got married. So did Doug Burns and Cheryl Dube. Remember Jack Scuito? Ten years ago he was the biggest dealer in Tenney High; now he's the biggest dealer in the United States. Louie Gaudreau is still pumping gas at Fay & Driscoll, good ol' loyal Louie. Jungle Jim O'Loughlin is an owner of the Volkswagon factory over in North Andover. Jimmy owns it? I know a lot of kids who work there. Jim Briggs, Mike Barry, Richard McDowell, Mike Morin and some assemblers are Dale Ricci, Moe Regan, Donna Traficante, Joanne Waitt, Ann Jardine and Cathy Ireland. Jay Cater is now the owner of a percussion store and studio. Donna Reitano and Debbie Sweeney are still recovering from their swinging Un. Mass. life. Would you believe that Kathy Ford is still partying, that is when she's not baby sitting for Mary Jane Mansor's kids. They still go to Cuzzins IV with Billy Egan and Teddy Hajjar, and eggs are still thrown at the car. Cathy Scott is still living free. Will she ever settle down? Did you hear about the Kindly Brenda Appleyard? Yes, I hear she' doing remarkable work. She owns an orphanage, right? Yes, but she ran into a little trouble about a year ago. The Wacky Weeders, Jay Atkinson, Dave Downey, Jim Scuito, Mike Wrobel, Dave Cardone, Dave Reagan, Steve Pilz and Jeff Nason raided the orphanage. They were arrested by chief of Police Mike Silvestro. Doesn't Steve Collins work at the orphanage to help support his film-making hobby? But it doesn't offer too much work because there is only one orphan left, Dan Dunn. That new High School they built ten years ago didn't last too long. I suppose you heard that Joe Grassello designed the New Methuen High School they built last year. Jeff Lerned did the land surveying for it, right? Bruce Perkins, who owns the Methuen MacDonald's serves as the Cafeteria Supervisor. Richard Gingras is the head of the English Department, and Nancy Benson is a math teacher. And Patty McMenamon is the school nurse. They have a great sports department now. Mike Erving is football coach. Mike Lawton is soccer coach. Curt Goulet coached Methuen High hockey team to its ninth straight state championship. Paul Drury, Roger Trembley, and John Bagetta are gym teachers. Every now and then you read about some other kids who have been making guest appearances at Methuen High. Ken Schelling gives a guest appearance. He's a member of the N.H.L. and makes $500,000 a year. Mark Buben, the star from the Miami Dolphins, lectures the football team occasionally. Cathy Paris is the majorette instructor, and Vicky Dobrzynski, a concert pianist in New York City, helps out instructing the band. Do you remember John Collins? He is now a pilot for TWA. Mike Plantamura is his navigator and Jane Forgione, Cindy Fleming and Donna Hollins are all stewardesses on the plane. I heard the other day he flew the great film stars Jerry Peters, Nancy Parsons, Brad Craven, who recently divorced Barbara Stoebel, and Anne Dore, who just finished her sixth season with MASH, to Washington, D.C. They met Lisa Camacho, the President of the U.S. and Kevin Kissinger, the Secretary of State. They also met Robert Gross, Admiral of the 9th Fleet, who's fleet of four rowboats, commanded by Bob Coco, Roland Galude, Alfred Marsan, and David Rotondo, won fame in the Chicago Sewer affair as "The chicken of the sea." Have you even been to Doug's place? You know Doug Clarke. He owns that lounge in the Methuen Mall. Yes, they have good entertainment in there; Paula Vaiknoras is the dancer, Sal Polizzotti, Kim Donnelly, and Carol Baillargeon are in the band, and Laurie Wilson is the singer. Yes, I always see Mike Kennedy and Steve Copley in there. The years sure didn't affect their rowdiness. Jimmy and Vinny Luciano, Herald Gobel, Mike Green, Ray Chase, Scott Wooles and Tom Ange are always in there. The mall really has a large variety of stores. The DeMoulas, owned by Gary Castiglione, has the lowest prices in the area. Keith Bird, Carol Cavanaugh, Mae Moore, Dorina Moreau, and John Boush work in the meat department. Sharon Jaeger, Denise Duquette, Andy Shea, Brenda Waitt, and Lynda Bryon are all stock girls. The cashiers are Diane Holland, Ethel Leblanc, Daralyn Nelson, Juana Alba, and Virginia Cebula. Tim Gormley's health food store, Timmy's Tummy's Tidbits, just opened yesterday. He hired Doug Burns, Mike Didio, Barry Dube, Wayne Caron, Alan Arleque, and Mark Dennis as salesmen, and helping him out at the cash register are Kathy Savoie and Virginia Gagnon. I took my bicycle down to Mike Kmiec's bike store the other day and Mark Lemarier and Rick Longtin fixed it for me. Wendy Schubert, Cindy Deaborn, Kathy Saindon and Rhonda Salois work at the cash register. Tony Catalano's Build and Save, is the best carpentry shop in the Merrimack Valley. Tony, George McLaughlin, and John Mottola are considered the top wood workers in the area. Speaking of Tony, here comes my husband now. Yea, glad to see you again Sue. See you later Kurt.

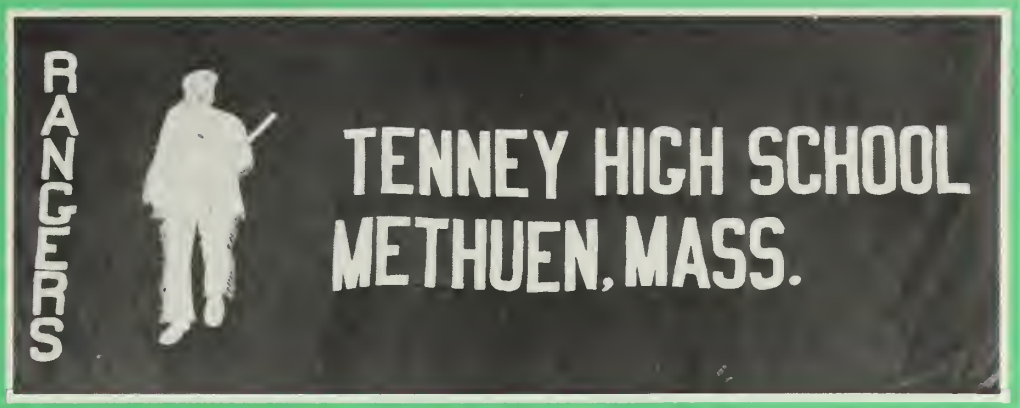
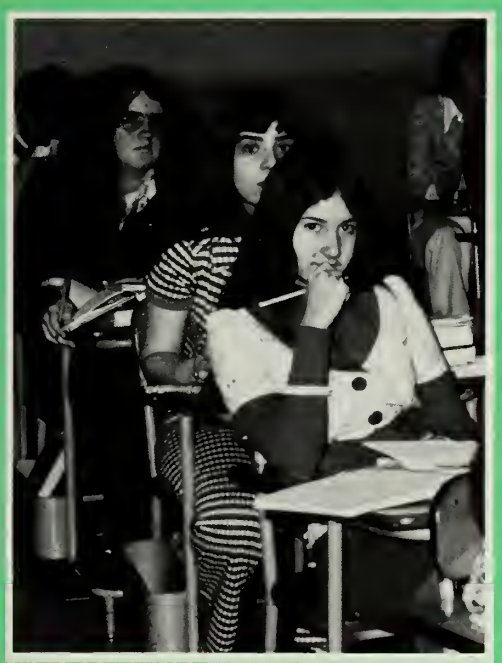
Our Senior year began on September 4th, 1974.





It was a year marked by the usual homework and tests but . . .

We also greatly anticipated the long-awaited senior activities.

United in friendship and enthusiasm we shared the year with each other.

It was the time we spent with our friends that was important.

Our senior year has ended

Each of us spent it pursuing different interests, but we were bound together in the common tie of friendship.

The Class of "75" Says . . .

FAREWELL.

AUTOGRAPHS

I wish to take this opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to members of the faculty and the yearbook staff for their cooperation in producing this book. Hopefully it will bring back many pleasant memories throughout the coming years. Goodbye and good luck, graduates.

Look to this day!
For yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision —
But today well-lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope —
Look well therefore to this day!
